

October 1, 1903

DEATH OF W. H. GRANGER

R. A. Mather received a telegram first of the week announcing the death of W. H. Granger at Linden, Mich., where for several months he made his home with a brother.

The body is being shipped here for interment in Hufston cemetery, where are remains of his wife, who died several years ago.

Mr. Granger was a member of the Masonic order at Claremont, and the body will be taken in charge here by Grotton Masons, who will leave from H. Paetznick's store at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

Deceased had long been an accute sufferer with a bone ailment, resulting from the kick of a horse. After the doctors of Aberdeen and Claremont had treated the ailment for some time he went to Hot Springs, Ark., but grew rapidly worse. From there he was taken to Ann Arbor, Mich., and later to the home of his brother.

Mr. Granger was connected with the sheriff's office for a number of years during the early eighties and was well known throughout this county, where he leaves many friends to mourn his death.

Three orphan children survive him and are at present with relatives in Michigan. Sid Granger, brother of deceased, accompanies the body out from Michigan.